

As a consumer I oppose the efforts of the petitioners to weaken Indiana's No-Call list statute. Even though I maintain business relationships with various firms doing business in Indiana, I do not wish that they call me trying to solicit new business. I find these interruptions an annoyance and misleading in many cases. I ask that their petition be rejected accordingly.